We The Seniors

The Middletown Area High School, in order to insure domestic tranquility, provide for the common defense, promote the general welfare, and secure the blessings of liberty to ourselves and our posterity, do hereby establish this Constitution for the United States of America.

Article I

Section 1. We the Seniors at the Legislative Branch shall be in order in a Congress of the United States. The House of Representatives shall be composed of Members chosen every second Year by the People of the several States. The Electors in each State shall have the Qualifications requisite for Electors in that State. No Person shall be a Representative who shall not have attained to the Age of twenty five Years, seven Years shall be the Term, but no Person shall be elected Representative who shall not, when elected, have seven Years residence in that State. The Senate shall be composed of two Senators from each State, chosen by the Electors in each State. The Electors in each State shall have the Qualifications requisite for Electors in that State. No Person shall be a Senator who shall not have attained to the Age of thirty Years, and been seven Years a Citizen of the United States, and who, when elected, shall not have been seven Years a Resident in that State. The Senate shall have the sole Power to try all Impeachments. When sitting for that Purpose, they shall be on Oath or Affirmation. The Majority shall determine the Guilt or Innocence of the Party. The President and Vice President shall be elected for a Term of four Years. The Electors shall have the Qualifications requisite for Electors in that State. No Person except a natural born Citizen, or who was born in the United States, shall be eligible to the Office of President. No Person shall be elected President who shall not, when elected, have fourteen Years residence in the United States. The President shall hold Office for a Term of four Years. The President shall be Commander in Chief of the Army and Navy of the United States, and of the Militia of the several States, and may execute all the executive Powers vested in the President by this Constitution. He may receive Ambassadors and other public Ministers. He may make Treaties, provided two thirds of the Senate be present. He may nominate and appoint, and may remove, Judges of the Supreme Court, and other Officers of the United States. He may grant Reprieves and Pardons for all Offenses against the United States, except Treason, Bribery, and other Crimes. He shall have Power to fill up all the Vacancies in the United States, except those which shall be otherwise provided for. He shall have the Power to declare War, but no Declaration of War shall be valid unless Congress be actually assembled. He shall have the Power to suspend the Execution of the Law, and to receive the Oath of Allegiance from Ambassadors and other public Ministers. He shall have the Power to grant Letters of Marque and Reprisal, and to regulate the Militia. He shall have the Power to provide for calling forth the Militia to execute the Laws of the United States, to suppress Insurrections, and to repel Invasions. He shall have the Power to provide for organizing, arming, and disciplining the Militia, and for governing the Discipline of the Militia when engaged in the Service of the United States. He shall have the Power to provide for the Punishment of Offenses against the United States, and to regulate the Commerce and Finance of the United States. He shall have the Power to regulate the Commerce and Finance of the United States. He shall have the Power to regulate the Commerce and Finance of the United States.

In Memoriam

As we reflect on our school years—the happy times, the frustrating times, the victorious times,—we'll think, too, of the sad times and the tragic times.

We remember the sweet smile and pleasant disposition of a young classmate who had a serious health problem of which most of us were unaware. DIANE MENEAR was not with us when we started our Sophomore year.

Who will be able to forget the post-Christmas tragedy that took the lives of two of our classmates during our Junior year? PAMELA BAUMBACH and CYNTHIA BROWN were killed as the result of a tragic accident.

We shall fondly remember Diane, Pamela, and Cynthia, for they were our friends.
